Method of Payment for GBCA Tuition & Morning/After Care:

Monthly installment payments will be processed through FACTS* Tuition Management System. FACTS does charge an initial fee for this service. Plan options include both monthly and bi-monthly options.

- GBCA tuition: 12 months (July-June), 10 months (August-May), 9 months (September-May)
- GBCA morning/after care: 9 months (September to May)

Students enrolling after the beginning of a month will be assessed the equivalent of one month's tuition immediately upon enrolling, with the balance spread out over the remaining months immediately following the date of enrollment through May.

Credit Card payment for tuition will incur 3% transaction fee for convenience.

*FACTS is the largest provider of tuition payment plans in the industry, giving families a better way to manage education costs over time.

Method of Payment for Charges other than Tuition:

Lunch charges, merchandise charges, and all other non-tuition related charges have to be paid directly to GBCA and shall be paid via check, cash, money order, debit card, or credit card (Visa/MasterCard).

Late Fee/Returned Check Fee:

A $50.00 late fee will be charged on all non-FACTS payments received after the 6th of each month, as well as all returned checks. Services may be suspended if the account remains delinquent after 25 days.

Financial Aid (limited amount available):

Families who have need of financial assistance for tuition must apply for financial aid on an annual basis. Financial Aid Requests, along with a $25.00 administrative fee (non-refundable), must be submitted to FACTS at the time of application submission. Financial Aid Requests for returning families must be submitted along with their application by March 16th. The Application Fee must be paid prior to financial need determination. The ministry Financial Aid Board will determine the eligibility and need of families/students. All information provided is confidential and will only be seen by the Financial Aid Board. Financial aid is based upon full disclosure of all available income. Parents will be contacted as to the determination of their request. Families receiving financial aid are required to participate and meet at least the minimum requirements of all academy fundraisers. Financial assistance will not be provided for any non-tuition related fees (i.e. registration, book, athletic, etc.). Book fees must be paid prior to June 30th or when the scholarship is accepted. Discounts (i.e., multiple student discounts, public servant discounts, and family maximums) will not be combined or awarded to any family that receives tuition assistance.

Referral Discount:

Families could receive up to a $250.00 discount for referring new families to GBCA. The new family being referred must enroll their child(ren) for the referring family to receive the referral discount. This discount will be applied as a $25.00 credit on the referring family's account each month (up to 10 months) in which the new family is enrolled.
